Marshalls to Meadowbrook

Smart shoppers who seek out brand names at low prices will soon have a great new destination to visit at Meadowbrook Mall. Marshalls will be setting up shop in the north concourse of the mall, near the Elder-Beerman Home Store. When designers over-produce and department stores over-buy, Marshalls steps in and gets their best for less. The result is name brand fashions for men, women and children at 20-60% off the regular price.

Marshalls operates over 750 stores in 42 states and Puerto Rico, but none within 100 miles of Meadowbrook Mall. Construction work will begin in July to create 24,141 square feet of space for the new store. As part of the renovation, Fashion Kings and Master Cuts will be relocating to other spaces within the mall. The new Marshalls is scheduled to open for business in mid-October.

Marshalls will be joining other fine names at Meadowbrook Mall, such as Elder-Beerman, Target, Sears, JCPenney, Dick's Sporting Goods, Cinemark Cinema and over 100 specialty shops. Meadowbrook Mall is located on Interstate 79, Exit 121, in Bridgeport, WV. It encompasses nearly 1 million square feet of retail space, and has been serving the people of Bridgeport, Clarksburg and all of North-Central West Virginia since 1982.

Meadowbrook Mall is owned and managed in association with Cafaro affiliated companies, based in Youngstown, Ohio. One of the nation's largest privately held shopping center developers, the Cafaro organization owns and oversees more than 30 million square feet of commercial real estate in 11 states. Founded by the late William M. Cafaro in the 1940's, the firm is now in its seventh decade as a family owned and managed business.
